VOL. XVII. NO. 170.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JULY 18, 1911.

PRICE 5 CENTS

EXODUS ON FROM LATONIA

HORSEMEN DEPARTING FROM KENTUCKY TRACK AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE.

Many Horses Go Into Temporary Retirement Pending Resumption of Kentucky Racing-Others Leave for Canadian Tracks.

Cincinnati, O., July 17.—Donau, Hanbridge and the rest of the William Gerst and George H. Holle horses will be shipped to Canada for summer racing by trainer George Ham. The Kentucky Derby winner of 1910 is better now than he has been since arly in his three-year-old form. Hanbridge has not run since he fell and hurt himself while being schooled at the barrier at Louisville last spring, but he is working well again and will soon be ready to race again. Among the two-year-olds trainer Ham will take to Canada are New Haven and Working Lad, both of which are in good condition.

Trainer William Cahill has departed for Canada with the horses of Barney Schreiber that he has been racing here. He will race Sager for Mr. Schreiber at Fort Erie, when the second meeting begins there, and the famous Jack Atkin will be shipped from Woodlands Farm to trainer Cahill in Canada to be prepared for another fall and winter campaign.

Secretary Edward Maginn has gone to St. Louis to remain until his presence is needed at Fort Erie, where racing will be resumed July 29 for seven days.

Trainer James Lally has made up his mind to remain at Latonia, where he will conduct a public stable in preparation for fall racing.

James Griffin has sold for export to Mexico the three-year-old brown colt, Receiver, by Disguise II.—Obscurity. The Mexicans have also bought of W. J. G. Bissell the three-year-old colt, Southern Light, by Peep o'Day—Mettie O.

The horses of Pat Dunne and W. H. Laudeman have been shipped to Churchill Downs from Latonia. With them went a carload owned by J. B. Respess, another car owned by Henderson & Hogan and the stables of Lon Jones, Louis Tauber and Dan Lehan. The strings of E. R. Bradley and J. P. Ross were shipped to Lexington and F. J. Pons also sent a carload to the Kentucky Association track. None of these horses will race again until fall.

The stables of F. R. Hitcheock and H. K. Knapp were shipped to Lexington and F. J. Pons also sent a carload to the Kentucky Association track. None of these horses will reac

TO TEST SALT LAKE CITY ORDINANCE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 17.—Judge George G. Armstrong has issued a writ of prohibition returnable July 26 restraining Judge J. M. Bowman of the criminal division of the city court from assuming jurisdiction in the trial of the case against H. J. Carrigan, charged with violation of a city ordinance through the alleged maintenance of a pool for betting on horse races in the rear of 225 South Main street, this city.

Carrigan was arrested by patrolman R. A. Radka June 27, and a complaint was filed charging him with gambling. Carrigan filed a denurrer to the complaint on the ground that the complaint was not in accordance with the requirements of the state law, and that the city court had no jurisdiction in the matter. The demurrer was overruled and trial set. Setting forth that he might be convicted at the trial if it were held, and on the ground that the city judge was without jurisdiction in the case, Carrigan applied to the Third District Court for a writ of prohibition restraining Judge Bowman continuing with the trial. Carrigan alleges that the city judge is without legal jurisdiction in the matter, as the city had not the right to pass the ordinance which he was arrested and the complaint lessued. The case is one of considerable interest, as it involves the question of the authority of Salt It involves the question of the authority of Salt Lake City in the matter of race track booking, which has been questioned before. This is the first time that legal steps have been taken to test the city ordinances.

Because of the ordinance referred to racing with betting was abandoned by the Utah Jockey Club at Buena Vista Park, which is within the city limits, Lagoon Park, where racing was recently conducted, is out of the jurisdiction of the city.

SENATOR BRACKETT'S LATEST IDEA.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 17.—It is reported here that Senator Brackett will introduce a bill in the Legislature as a substitute for the Gittins bills. Senator Brackett's bill, it is said, will relieve the directors of race tracks from responsibility for violations of the Agnew-Perkins law and will place it on the shoulders of a state racing commissioner, appointed by the Governor to inspect the race tracks and report any transgressions of the law. Senator Brackett's proposed bill, reports say, will bring about many changes. It will replace the present board of three state racing commissioners—James Wadsworth, H. K. Knapp and John Sanford—with one man, who will have absolute authority over racing in this state. The commissioner will issue licenses to race tracks to hold meetings and racing associations that fail to receive this license will not be permitted to give meetings.

The commissioner, under the terms of the bill, is to visit all race meetings and order the arrest of violators of the law. Then, if the commissioner believes the officials of the track have been a party to the violation or that the track managers have been paid for the privilege of "making book" or other forms of gambling, he will be empowered to revoke the track's license and force it to close its gates.

WESTERN HORSEMEN ARRIVING AT BUTTE.

Butte, Mont., July 17.—Butte is rapidly filling up with horses and followers of racing in preparation for Vednesday's opening of the Butte Jockey Club's anal meeting of thirty days. Virtually all those whook part in the sport at Salt Lake City are here, or fill be here by the time the meeting opens. Later in a big influx of horses and horsemen is expected from Vancouver, B. C., where racing is still going in.

Martin Nathanson will act as handicapper and pre-siding judge here, while Richard Dwyer will officiate at the barrier.

At least fifteen books are expected to cut in the pening day, and this season, in expectation of in-reased patronage, the betting ring has been enlarged by an addition of fifty feet at one end.

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN SIRES OF 1911

Up to and including the last day of June Star Shoot was the leader of the band of twenty chief American sires, but by no great margin over Cesarion and Hamburg, second and third respectively. August Belmont's Hastings is in fourth place, but his more preferred stallion, Rock Sand, has as yet failed to gain a place in this select list. In these days of curtailed racing and moderate gains winning totals increase slowly and it is hardly probable any material changes are to be looked for soon. The records of the twenty leaders through their sons and daughters are:

MOISANT WINS EDENWOLD

BROOKDALE-BRED FILLY SCORES IN STAKE RACE AT WINDSOR TRACK.

Withdrawals Following Changed Track Conditions Lead to Declaring Off of One Race-Denham Takes Measure of St. Bass.

Detroit, Mich., July 17.—Moisant, a Brookdale-bred filly running in the colors of Albert Simons, proved best of a band of good two-year-olds that went to the post in the Edenwold Stakes, the feature race of the Windsor program this afternoon. Moisant was ridden by Guy Burns, led from start to finish and outlasted S. C. Hildreth's Gold Blade half a length in a driving finish. There were six starters, Sister Florence, a recent arrival from Latonia, being added. The Belmont pair, Vestibule and Wildweed, were heavily backed and went to the post at odds-on. Neither of the pair were ever really dangerous, although Vestibule succeeded in finishing third. Heavy rain, which fell yesterday, did little more than settle the dust. The going was not exactly fast, however, and for this reason trainer John Whalen withdrew the Belmont colt, Watervale, from the fifth race, which was a condition affair for three-year-olds at one mile and a furlong. Horicon, another of the four carded to go in this race, struck himself on Saturday and was also scratched. This left only two to go, so the race was declared off and a seven-eighths selling affair substituted.

In the opening dash Aldebaran, which has been touted by the clockers all spring as the best young-in this race, struck himself on Saturday and was also scratched. This left only two to go, so the race was declared off and a seven-eighths selling affair substituted.

In the opening dash Aldebaran, which has been touted by the clockers all spring as the best youngster in the Wilson stable, graduated from the maiden ranks. He won with ease after making all of his own pace. S. C. Hildreth won with The Welbid his for the first time since he purchased the mare at Pimlico last spring. The easy fences at Windsor suit The Welkin and she jumped with confidence this afternoon. Andrew Summers, backed from 8 to 4 to 1, led until the last quarter before he quit.

St. Bass, which has been looked upon as the champion of the Canadian-breds, was taken into camp by the Valley Farm's Denham in the third race. Denham, showing a fine turn of speed, spreadeled his company and won in a romp by six lengths. St. Bass broke slowly and, plinning his ears back, sulked all the way.

Jockey J. Henry, who got into bad standing here last season through his connection with several Detroit plungers and a couple of horsemen, is here. It is understood that Henry made a sworn statement to Judge Price in connection with the case and that he will be restored to good standing by the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations at their meeting here tomorrow.

There were many arrivals from Latonia among the big crowd that was present this afternoon. Among others were Lew Marlon, who formerly trained for Irving H. Wheatcroft, John J. McLafferty, William Sippy, Harry Laudeman, Clarence Westphal, George Odom, Homer Selby, George Reardon, Arthur Lottus, Luke Tully, William Barrett and jockeys J. Wilson, J. Deavenport and T. Rice. W. C. Westmoreland and Oscar Holder also arrived during the afternoon by boosting Lad of Langden, winner of the seventh race, and secured him for $700.

Starter Dade inflicted punishment on three riders this afternoon. J. Glass was suspended for two days and A. Wrispen for three days for misbehavior at the post and M. Henderso $825 after she had been beaten.

John Louis arrived from St. Louis this morning and joined the ranks of the layers. There were thirty-one in line today.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is reported that H. M. Ziegler is so enamored of French racing that he may engage in the sport there as an owner.

The meeting at Tulsa has been extended to cover this entire week, making fifteen days of racing instead of the thirteen originally scheduled.

According to present plans the Lagoon Fair and Racing Association will not hold a fall meeting, and there will be no more racing in the vicinity of Salt Lake City until next year.

Nat Ray, who figured as a highly successful stee-plechase rider on the metropolitan tracks a few years ago, is now meeting with marked success as an owner and driver of trotters in Canada. The trial of Thomas F. Dolan, former owner of Jean Bereaud, for the murder of Patrick Mooney, proprietor of the Leland Hotel at Lexington, Ky., April 20, was begun at that place yesterday.

Robert L. Downton, a noted poolseller of the late '70s and early '80s, died at St. Louis, Mo., Friday, at the age of sixty-eight. He is said to have introduced John W. Gates to the turf.

duced John W. Gates to the turf.

James R. Keene's Cataract, by Ben-Brush—Running Stream, ran third in the National Breeders' Produce Stakes of 5,000 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, at Sandown Park, in England, Saturday.

In the Prix Dolma Baghtche, run at Maisons-Laffitte, in France, yesterday, Thomas P. Thorne's Monsleur Guerin was second. W. K. Vanderbilt's Mirambo finished second in the Prix du Lude.

W. K. Vanderbilt's Brime, ridden by Garner, and the same owner's Ramesseum, with O'Neill in the saddle, ran second and third respectively in the Prix Hermit of 20,000 francs at Saint Cloud, in France, last Friday.

DISCUSS DATES FOR LEXINGTON RACING.

Lexington, Ky., July 17.—The ten days from September 18 to September 28 are under discussion for the fall meeting of the Kentucky Association. The executive committee of the association, at a meeting today, authorized improvements that will increase the capacity of the betting ring and provide more commodious offices for the pooling force and will likewise increase the paddock space.

The racing strings of W. J. Young, John Rodegap, Jack Baker, S. K. Hughes and others have returned from Latonia and are now quartered at the local track.

DONAU AND HIS CURE.

There is one horse at Latonia that is a marvel in a way. Donau is the horse in question and the improvement he has shown in recent races borders on the marvelous, and is a testimonial to the ability of assistant starter Harry Morrissey as a sort of "Prof. Gleason" in handling stubborn horses. Donau got in the condition where he would not do anything. He could not be got on the track, and if trainer Ham succeeded in getting him that far the stubborn Donau would not budge further. Every trick to get him moving was tried without success, and both trainer Ham and owner Gerst had about given the horse up. Then Harry Morrissey stepped in and declared that he could get the horse to going again and make him quite tractable at the post. The matter was laid before Mr. Gerst, and he said, "we will give him just his chance. If he won't behave send him to Nashville, where he can pull a beer wagon," That would have been a sad ending for a Kentucky Derby winner. Morrissey trained him in his own peculiar style—with a long rope and a long whip. Donau was soon aware what the long whip meant, and before long he would gallop behind a pony to whose saddle was fastened one end of the long rope. After a few days of this he was taken to the barrier, where he acquired more respect for the long whip. The first im he was sent to the post he stopped half way until Morrissey came along with the whip, and Donau at once galloped to the post. He got away and won. Last Thursday he beat the best sprinters at the track. Morrissey thinks he is a great horse at a distance not over seven furlongs. "Donau can trin the best at seven furlongs and under," said Morrissey, provided he gets away from the post. Since his blinkers are off he is almost sure to leave there. But he should never be started in a race where another bad actor goes to the post. That might make him sour again."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Last week's racing left the two leaders for the saddle honors of 1911 relatively as they were at the beginning of the week. T. Rice was sufficiently successful to advance into third place. The only change in the personnel of the list was the displacement of J. Reid, who is now riding in France, by A. Walsh.
